W. N. MARTIN FOR CONGRESS

Local Man Files Papers For Place on Republican Primary Ballot in August

TWO OTHER AS- PIRANTS FOR HONOR

W. N. Martin, of this city, announced as candidate for Congress from the Second District, subject to the action of the Republican voters at the Primary election August 5. Mr. Martin is an old Earlington boy and is a member of the great army of laboring men, being foreman of the Bee office and, if he should be nominated and elected would strive to make a true servant of the people, looking to the best interests of his constituents at every point, showing favors to none, and doing all in his power to serve the best interests of all classes, protecting the rights and privileges of all.

W. C. Fowler, of Hopkinsville, and F. J. Penticost, of Henderson, have also announced for the place.

Age of Discretion.

When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul; discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee; to deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh forward things; who leaves the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness; who rejoices to do evil, and delights in the forwardness of the wicked.—Proverbs 2:10-14.

FAREWELL MEETING

For Soldier Boys Held at the Opera House Last Night

The most impressive public gathering ever held in this city was the farewell meeting held for members of Co. G. Hospital Corps and members of Field Staff last night at the opera house. The house was well filled. Practically all of the men who are going to the front were present and a large number of citizens, both ladies and gentlemen. Appropriate addresses were made by Revs. Grant and Hawkins. F. B. Arnold and Dr. Nisbet also made short talks. An opportunity was given to the soldier boys to enlist under the banner of Christ and a large number availed themselves of the opportunity. A movement was started to raise a fund for Co. G and the Hospital Corps. $185.00 was secured at the meeting and this sum will in all probability be increased by public subscription. This gathering was one of the most impressive ever held in the city and much lasting good was accomplished. Rev. Grant and Hawkins, the originators of the meeting are to be congratulated on the splendid success met with.

Following are the names and amounts donated by Earlington citizens. This list is still open and parties desiring to contribute to the soldier fund can do so at the Peoples Bank.

SHRINERS WILL GO TO PADUCAH WEDNESDAY

Summer Ceremonial Visitation Promises to be One of the Best Ever Held

V. H. Behne, in charge of the paraphernalia, instruments of torture, etc., used in ceremonials staged by Rizpah Shrine, left yesterday for Paducah, where the summer ceremonial will be staged by this Temple Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Behne will be busily engaged today and tonight, getting the Masonic Temple in readiness for the staging of the big event. The class for the work will be one of the largest ever taken in and the boys anticipate a royal time.

A special train will be run from Central City, Madisonville, Providence, Henderson and Earlington Shriners will leave here Wednesday on the 12:15 Dinky and will join the special at Nortonville. The boys will return home Thursday morning.

NOTICE TO ST. CHARLES SUBSCRIBERS

There seems to be a misunderstanding among some of you in regard to the collecting of subscriptions recently. The names were sent in by this office and Mr. Will Faull had nothing whatever to do with it. Please bear this in mind and if you have any complaint to make, make it to me and not to Mr. Faull.

CINCINNATI CONTEST PARTY HAS RETURNED

Had a Good Time and Wanted to Stay a Week Longer

The members of the Earlington Bee's contest party who made the Ohio River trip to Louisville and Cincinnati via Evansville last week, have returned home, according to advertisement, on their special car Sunday night on Train 93. The entire party are unanimous in their praise of this trip and say it was the most delightful one in every way they had ever enjoyed. The thanks of the party are due too Mr. Thomas Quinnan, of the Chamber of Commerce; Mr. Bradshaw, editor of the Cincinnati and Mr. Ey, of the American Press Association; these gentlemen accompanied the party on their sight-seeing trips, furnished passes to the places of amusements and furnished all necessary information regarding objects of interest. Cincinnati is a very interesting city and her people are courteous, friendly and hospitable. The Bee's party enjoyed every moment of their visit and regretted their stay was so short. Miss Frieda Heller and her sister Miss Estella, and Miss Lavenia Edwards, met the party on arrival and added greatly to the pleasure of the trip. During the stop over in Louisville the party visited the armory and saw the soldier boys getting ready to leave for the mobilization camp, visited the picture shows and did some shopping. Too much cannot be said about the trip, on the Tarascon. The boat trip was the chief enjoyment of the party and the Tarascon was turned over to the Bee's party without reservation.

Capt. Williams and the crew did not spare any means to make the party have a good time, and they certainly did have it. Mr. and Mrs. Veck, and Mr. and Mrs. Cowlishaw, of Evansville joined the party and added quite a good deal to the enjoyment of all as they were jolly good fellows and out for a good time. There were seven telephone girls on the Tariscon from New Albany, all members of the "Flower Club," and believe me they were having some time. Their names were Mrs. Rickmeyer, Mrs. Meinhardt, Mrs. Beader, Miss Rockenbach, Mrs. Scheeter, Mrs. Mary Trintler and Mrs. Rieber. As you can readily see from their names they are French(?). These ladies had a better time than any one and were the life of the party while on the boat, and these same girls will in all probability go to the Mammoth Cave with the Bee's party on Saturday, August 26. An amusing incident occurred while in Cincinnati, the party stopped at the Hotel Metropole, where when they first arrived the sign on the building was yellow; that afternoon the management of the hotel had it repainted green. This slight change was the cause of some of the party passing the hotel several times without discovering it was the place they wanted, and they were considerably astonished when they did venture in to find it was the right place.

Brought a Sample With Her.

The tobacconist watched her outside his shop window. For fully half an hour she stood there gazing through the panes. Then she came in. She fumbled and fussed, and at length brought forth a little packet. This she carefully undid till, finally, a small stub end came to view. The tobacconist raised his eye brows inquiringly. "Good afternoon," said the lady, holding up the stub end gingerly for inspection. "Here is a remnant of one of my husband's special cigars. Have you anything to match it?"

BAPTIST REVIVAL

Continues Through Week—Much Interest Being Shown

The revival at the Baptist church in this city, being conducted by Rev. M. E. Staley and Pastor Connaway continues thru the week and probably longer. Interest in the meeting grows with each service and there have been several additions.

WHY FT. THOMAS?

Along with the three great questions which have agitated the minds of all the great philosophers—namely Who struck Billy Patterson? What became of Charles Ross? and How the apple came to be inside the dumpling? may be placed the paramount question of the Dark and Bloody Ground; why should Fort Thomas be selected as a mobilization center for the Kentucky National Guard?

After much study and much research it is found that Fort Thomas is a rugged army Post in the county of Campbell. It is possible to reach Fort Thomas, provided one possesses the patience of a Cyrus Field and the roving instincts of a Drake or a Magellan. First you travel by rail into the village of New Port—which is just across the bridge from Cincinnati—then you wait patiently for a street car and if one arrives ere you lose all hope you may trolley away to Fort Thomas. There you discover after you embark that it is a small army post, which by stretching will accommodate one regiment. The parade ground is admirably suited for squad drill, it is said that two squads may drill upon this ground if they exercise care and not run into each other. No rifle range is to be found; no water save in the muddy Ohio which is some ninety feet below the ground of the fort and at the foot of an inaccessible bluff. Not even a railroad spur connect this frontier fort with civilization. Every piece of baggage must be hauled out over the five miles which lie between it and the nearest railroad station.

The St. Bernard Mining Company of Earlington, Ky., offered a site to the state, which was refused upon the technical ground of being utterly inaccessible. Let us note this situation just a bit. We find that the majority of our constituency of the upper part of the state have been too busy with peanut politics of the back room saloon variety to even know where the model town of Earlington is. It is situated in Hopkins County on the main line of the L. & N. Railroad, between St. Louis and New Orleans. The Federal Census gave the town some 4400 population and this does not include all. There are eight through passenger trains daily, to say nothing of the eight local passenger trains. A beautiful lake supplies ample water for all this community. The entire community enjoys the best of health and it has the local reputation of being a health resort.

Suppose we look for a moment at the proposed camp site at Earlington. This ground is upon a beautiful ridge which is 550 feet above sea level and there is a natural drainage in every direction. The city water mains could be extended within a few hours and water could be—if desired on tap in every tent at a nominal cost. There would be fifty thousand acres of ground for hiking and the study of real warfare. Much of this ground being clad with the original forest, would furnish ample opportunity for endurance tests and all form of practice for brush fighting. Furthermore there is ample open ground upon which to maneuver the armies of Europe. Close by the camp is the first rifle range established in the state.

If the officials in charge really desired to train the guards before exposing them to the horrors of bandit warfare why then did they refuse this site and select Fort Thomas. Why are these boys enlisted and given an improved Springfield unless they are to be trained in the actual handling of this fire arm with accuracy? Are we simply collecting some cannon fodder for the Mexican hordes? Why carry them Fort Thomas and simply have them march five miles to reach a railroad, when a through railroad passes the offered camp site here, and they could entrain right in the camp itself? Why this and why a thousand more things?

It has been said by some of the objectors that there are not enough amusements in Earlington for the camp. Do we then understand that the state is simply gathering up several thousand men for a Mexican Ball? or to attend some of the State functions of the doughty Carranza? It is true that there are no saloons in Earlington, Crap Joints, Hutche Cuthe Parlors or the like. But there is an abundance of clean, moral manhood, and plenty of fresh air, pure water, and plenty of room for all of the National Guards of a half dozen states to mobilize, train and prepare for actual warfare. Furthermore there are more through trains in Earlington than in Campbell County in a week. These trains could be spotted right at the camp site and five thousand men could be entrained in less than an hour. With our twenty-five miles of side track in our yard the boys could make a much better get away than is frequently made at Latonia.

Does [not the doughty General Roger Williams know that the very proximity Cincinnati to Fort Thomas is a great danger to the average country boy? These boys when once granted leave of camp would immediately go to the Queen City and hide themselves away across the Rhine and take Fort Beer and other outlying and exposed breastworks. Will

WOMAN AVOIDS OPERATION

Medicine Which Made Surgeon's Work Unnecessary.

Astoria, N. Y. — "For two years I was feeling ill and took all kinds of tonics. I was getting worse every day. I had chills, my head would ache, I was always tired. I could not walk straight because of the pain in my back and I had pains in my stomach. I went to a doctor and he said I must go under an operation, but I did not go. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told my husband about it. I said 'I know nothing will help me but I will try this.' I found myself improving from the very first bottle, and in two weeks time I was able to sit down and eat a hearty breakfast with my husband, which I had not done for two years. I am now in the best of health and did not have the operation." — Mrs. JOHN A. KOENIG, 502 Flushing Avenue, Astoria, N. Y.

Every one dreads the surgeon's knife and the operating table. Sometimes nothing else will do; but many times doctors say they are necessary when they are not. Letter after letter comes to the Pinkham Laboratory, telling how operations were advised and were not performed; or, if performed, did no good, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was used and good health followed.

If you want advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

not Cincinnati be filled with Harpies both male and female who will prey upon these boys like vultures and the saloons and soiled doves would cause more physical havoc among enlisted men than all the lead of the enemy?

As there is no reason on earth for selecting Fort Thomas as the site why was it selected? Will some one unfold the mystery of this selection?

BURKE-KILROY

Miss Kathrine Irene Kilroy and Mr. William A. Burke were married at St. Ann's Church yesterday morning. The Rev. Father Shea heard the vows at 8 o'clock in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives. The nuptial high mass was celebrated. Miss Kilroy was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Kilroy, as bridesmaid and her sister, Mrs. O. T. Dawson, of Chicago, a bride of last week, as matron of honor. Lawrence Kilroy, brother, was best man. The bride's baby sister, Frances Claire Kilroy, and small cousin, James Lawrence Smith, were the flower girl and boy.

Mr. Burke is an emlope of the Vandalia railroad. Mrs. Burke is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kilroy, of North Twelfth street and a charming young woman. The young people have a wide circle of friends in the city. Among the out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith, Misses Bessie and Winnifred Cavaness, Mrs. Michael Burke and daughter Mary Ellen, and James Kilroy, of Earlington, Ky., the former home of the Kilroy's; Mr. and Mrs. Pat Burke, of Memphis, Tenn.; Raymond Woodville, of Chicago; Miss Anna Burke, of Indianapolis and Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Dawson, of Chicago, who left Wednesday evening for the northern lakes on their own honeymoon.—Terre Haute News.

DOUBLE WEDDING

Mr. Charlie Ray and Miss Mable Brown and Mr. Preston Bunch and Miss Mayme Brown were married at Madisonville Saturday afternoon in the presence of a few friends and relatives.

Both gentlemen have just returned from West Virginia, being called home to Co. "G" of which they are members, they were formerly valued employees of the St. Bernard Mining Co.

The young ladies are charming young girls, the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brown, of Methodist Hill, and have many friends who wish them happiness and success all through life.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured

About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted for over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved me and within two days I was as well as ever." Obtainable everywhere.

BE PREPARED

(By Dr. Wiley in Good House-keeping.)

Every mother today is wondering whether or not her boy now fourteen or fifteen years of age will soon be called upon to bear arms in defense of his country. The patriotic mother with her heart chocking her throat and tears streaming from her eyes will encourage her boy when he goes to join the colors, but most of all she will want him to be a fit soldier, to bear himself like a hero, and, if he falls, to die gloriously on the field of battle and not from weakness or disease incident to bad habits.

Colonel Maus, retired surgeon of the army, says: "No one will ever know how many aviators who have lost their lives have alcohol to blame for the tragedy. If the United States expects to stand as a great military power among the nations of the world, it will be necessary to enforce total abstinence among the commissioned officers of the army and navy."

The soldier of the future will be a teetotaler, either by choice or compulsion. When it comes to the point of saving or destroying the nation, the advocates of the consumption of alcohol will be ranked among the Benedict Arnolds of the country, and not among the patriots. Let your boy know the truth about these things. Appeal to his manhood and his pride. Ask him if he does not want to have a successful career, to be a leader in his class, to be an expert in his trade, to be head of his bank, or his business, whatever it may be. And then tell him, "If you have the alcohol habit, you can be none of these."

MOVIES AND SALOONS

It is claimed that on behalf of the Motion picture that they are improving the public morals, and a speaker at the West Side Y. M. C. Federal Inquiry or Railroad Strike?

Faced by demands from the conductors, engineers, firemen and brakemen that would impose on the country an additional burden in transportation costs of $100,000,000 a year, the railroads propose that this wage problem be settled by reference to an impartial Federal tribunal.

With these employes, whose efficient service is acknowledged, the railroads have no differences that could not be considered fairly and decided justly by such a public body.

Railroads Urge Public Inquiry and Arbitration

The formal proposal of the railroads to the employes for the settlement of the controversy is as follows:

"Our conferences have demonstrated that we cannot harmonize our differences of opinion and that eventually the matters in controversy must be passed upon by other and disinterested agencies. Therefore, we propose that your proposals and the proposition of the railroads be disposed of by one or the other of the following methods:

1. Preferably by submission to the Interstate Commerce Commission, the only tribunal which, by reason of its accumulated information bearing on railway conditions and its control of the revenue of the railways, is in a position to consider and protect the rights and equities of all the interests affected, and to provide additional revenue necessary to meet the added cost of operation in case your proposals are found by the Commission to be just and reasonable; or, in the event the Interstate Commerce Commission cannot, under existing laws, act in the premises, that we jointly request Congress to take such action as may be necessary to enable the Commission to consider and promptly dispose of the questions involved; or
2. By arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Federal law" (The Newlands Act).

Leaders Refuse Offer and Take Strike Vote

Leaders of the train service brotherhoods, at the joint conference held in New York, June 1-15, refused the offer of the railroads to submit the issue to arbitration or Federal review, and the employes are now voting on the question whether authority shall be given these leaders to declare a nation-wide strike.

The Interstate Commerce Commission is proposed by the railroads as the public body to which this issue ought to be referred for these reasons:

No other body with such an intimate knowledge of railroad conditions has such an unquestioned position in the public confidence.

The rates the railroads may charge the public for transportation are now largely fixed by this Government board.

Out of every dollar received by the railroads from the public nearly one-half is paid directly to the employees as wages; and the money to pay increased wages can come from no other source than the rates paid by the public.

The Interstate Commerce Commission, with its control over rates, is in a position to make a complete investigation and render such decision as would protect the interests of the railroad employes, the owners of the railroads, and the public.

A Question For the Public to Decide

The railroads feel that they have no right to grant a wage preferment of $100,000,000 a year to these employes, now highly paid and constituting only one-fifth of all the employes, without a clear mandate from a public tribunal that shall determine the merits of the case after a review of all the facts.

The single issue before the country is whether this controversy is to be settled by an impartial Government inquiry or by industrial warfare.

L. J. Rubinow, of New York, has been appointed actuary for the Kentucky Workmen's Compensation Board. The board met with representatives of the Reciprocal Insurance Companies and adopted a set of rules under which the insurance is to be written.

Secretary of State Lewis has awarded to the National Color Type Company, of Newport, the contract for automobile and motorcycle plates for Kentucky for 1917. The state will pay for 30,000 automobile plates at 21 cents each and 2,000 motorcycle plates at 10 cents each.

The movement for the construction of public roads in this state, carrying with it an expenditure of many millions of dollars, means more than anything else for the welfare of Kentucky, was the statement made by Governor Stanley in addressing the officials of the Jackson Highway Association, who passed through the state.

Under the terms of the James resolution the United States Senate laid aside its business Saturday despite the war situation to pay tribute to the memory of the late Senator W. O. Bradley, of Kentucky. Eulogies were delivered by Senators James, Beckham, Kern, Williams, Overman, Nelson, Townsend, Works and Smoot.

Dr. R. W. Frymire, of Floral, nine miles from Hawesville, shot and stabbed to death Henry W. Schaefer, a prosperous farmer and master of the Floral Masonic lodge. Two hours later a deputy sheriff shot and wounded the physician when he refused to surrender promptly, although hemmed in by a posse of fifty men.

The new organization takes over the membership of the Kentucky Dairy Cattle Club.

James Benthall, of Covington, has applied for a patent on an invention which he contends will avoid collisions, as well as prevent damage to ocean liners by mine explosions. Benthall asserts that his patent is a guard and a signal for ships, and will avert collision with hidden objects, such as icebergs or derelicts.

A gold ring lost twenty-six years ago in a field near Bowling Green came to light when a negro forking up a garden, in turning the soil, found the little gold band still bright as the day it was lost. On the inner side was the name of Carl D. Herdman, a prominent real estate dealer of that city. The negro took the ring to the owner and received a reward.

Because he used a shotgun instead of an alarm clock to awaken his brother Steve for breakfast, Joe Jones, a carpenter of Lexington, will have to answer a charge of shooting and wounding. Brother Steve is in a Lexington hospital, doctors having picked the load of bird shot out of his right leg. Steve was sleeping in the yard at their home when the gun was fired.

County Clerk Bingham, of Union County, had a new experience. He had an application from a man from Illinois who wanted a marriage license to wed his mother-in-law. He said after his wife's death his mother-in-law continued to reside with him and help raise the children. During this association an attachment was formed with the above application as a result. It not being legal, the license was refused.

Private Charles Reynolds, Company K, Third Regiment, K. N. G., lies in a hospital at Owensboro with a knife wound in his left side over his heart, and Private John Millburn is in the county jail with a bayonet wound on his head and facing court martial on charges of refusing to report at the armory for duty, resisting arrest, insubordination and malicious cutting. Millburn resisted arrest and is said to have attacked Reynolds with a knife.

A touching incident of a mother's self-sacrifice for her country was given at Hopkinsville. A seventeen-year-old boy applied for admission to Company D, but was refused until he could get written permission from parents or guardian. Later he returned and handed the officers this note: "With sorrowful heart, take my boy and act as a loving mother to him, with God, is my prayer.—Mother." The woman is a widow and has several children. The boy is one of the breadwinners of the little family.

Ollie Rodgers and Luke Merriwether, negro citizens of Paducah, who were in the Spanish-American War, are making an effort to organize a negro regiment in that city. They have asked the public-spirited citizens to assist them in effecting the organization. The regiment would consist of about 1,800 soldiers. There are about 6,000 or more negroes in Paducah, so there is plenty of material for a regiment. The promoters desire to organize and offer the regiment for service in Mexico.

L. D. Boggs and family, of Potter, in some way received a report that Mr. Boggs' father, Eliphus Boggs, had died near Blaine. Relatives procured an automobile and drove out there, expecting to attend the funeral. Coming in sight of the house they saw the venerable old gentleman sitting on his porch enjoying life as much as usual. He is 84 years old and was delighted to have the family visit him. He was especially glad to know the report of his death was a false alarm and treated the matter as a joke.

Governor Stanley issued a proclamation for volunteers in the following words: "In the hour of stress and peril, Kentuckians have immemorially been the first to enter the breach. The Commander in Chief of the Armies and Navies of the United States has issued a call to the colors, and Kentuckians of this generation will prove worthy of the proudest traditions of their martial sires. I hope to see the battalions of this commonwealth among the first in line of duty, and, if need be, in line of battle."

The Census Bureau made public at Washington Monday the census of manufactures of the State of Kentucky. In Kentucky there was a decrease in five years of 12.4 per cent in the number of manufacturing establishments, 1.5 per cent in the number of persons engaged in manufactures, 17.9 per cent in the number of proprietors and firm members and 1.2 per cent in the average number of wage-earners. On the other hand, the capital invested in Kentucky manufactures in 1914 was $193,423,000, a gain of $20,644,000, or 11.9 per cent over the capital invested in 1909.

Three resourceful boys of Louisville who were turned down because of underweight at their first examinations at the enlistment station, went out and drank water and buttermilk until they almost burst, returned for second examination and were accepted. John Fryer found himself too light by a pound and a half at his first examination. A gallon of water did the work for him and he now is a member of Company C. Goebel Cundie ate two bowls of chili, drank ten glasses of water and gained three pounds. He is a member of Company D. One recruit in Company C drank enough buttermilk to allow of his passing the weight test.

Flight of the Locust.

Locusts in South Africa are very tiny creatures, at most two or three inches long, yet giant jawed and shelled in a grim brown mail so hard that as they strike it causes a sharp smart. They travel in such numbers that it takes them four or five days to pass over. The scouts alone, hovering in patches like red dust clouds, are numerous enough to destroy the vegetation of a district, while the main body, high up in the air, a host of little black specks, stretches out into an interminable screen between heaven and earth. The fanning of their wings brings a fresh coolness over the hot earth even in the depth of summer. There seems to be a fresh breath of ozone as of the sea.
